Steven Vigil

Strategic Partnerships Consultant
LatinoProsperity

Full Bio

Steven Vigil was raised in Colorado and discovered early on a talent for bringing diverse groups of people together around a common goal. He began his career with Santa Cruz Barrios Unidos in California, an organization that promotes social justice, nonviolence, and economic equity through cultural healing, civic leadership, and community development. He went on to join the United Nations, working at the UN Secretariat and in UN Peacekeeping, with missions in East Timor, Sierra Leone, Liberia, Sudan, South Sudan, and Afghanistan. After his UN service, he led peacebuilding projects in South Sudan, Guatemala, and El Salvador, as well as across the United States.

Before joining LatinoProsperity, he served as Chief of Policy & Advocacy for Youth Empowerment, a San Diego nonprofit that builds leadership through community mentorship, resiliency building, advocacy, and systems transformation for justice-involved individuals and families from historically marginalized communities. Mr. Vigil holds a BA from the University of California, Santa Cruz, and an MA in International Affairs from Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs.
